

Guy M. Gagnon, Executive Director & President

Guy M. Gagnon has over 18 years of experience in the affordable housing industry. Since 2010, he has held the positions of Executive Director for Biddeford Housing Authority and President of Southern Maine Affordable Housing. At Biddeford Housing Authority, he is responsible for the overall management of the Housing Choice Voucher program, existing properties owned and for the development of new properties.

Prior to joining Biddeford Housing Authority, Guy worked for the Westbrook Housing Authority as their Director of Development from 2004 to 2010. While at Westbrook Housing, Guy participated in the development of numerous properties including affordable condominiums, family apartments and senior housing using a variety of funding sources including Low Income Housing Tax Credits.

Guy's LIHTC trainings and certifications were obtained through the well-respected National Development Council. Guy was also the principal of Gemini Appraisals, which provided commercial and residential appraisal services to many lenders and clients in Southern Maine for over 12 years. Prior to that Mr. Gagnon was employed for over 3 years as a Development Officer at Maine Housing.

Guy has a B.S. in Business from UMaine and an Associates in Architectural Engineering from Wentworth Institute Of Technology.